REQUISITE QUALITIES OF THE "BEST ENGLISH TEACHERS"

We want you to be a world-class teacher of perfect knowledge, skill, Mind Power and self-confidence to teach English in a lovable style, not a teacher who imparts ignorance, confusion, doubts and misunderstanding in English etc. to your students, just for the sake of an employment. Enjoy the fragrance of being an expert in teaching English and get the perennial love, respect and recognition of your students. If you have already secured Government recognized University degrees for teaching, fill them with actual knowledge, skills and expertise to weigh heavy, instead of being an "empty drum".

Our philosophy is a truly educated person should be an exemplary person or leader for common people to follow the foot-steps of, whereas a teacher should be the most exemplary person or leader for the whole society to follow the foot-step of. Therefore, at the time of training, every other participant will be a mirror of yours to reflect if your behavior, characteristics, attitude, inter-personal relationship etc. contains any of the 26 vices mentioned in the Importance of Personality Development". If others find any bit of vices in you, it will be brought to your knowledge and attention through personal approach or written opinion (without the name of the author). If you do not take very serious concern and corrective step to be free from such defects, your course completion will be delayed or negatively affected. When somebody points out your short comings, how you react to them, will also matter very much. All these are needed to make you a lovable person. Our intention is to have a difference in our society at present where we can experience people with long degrees and high position and authority are filled with vices such as excessive pride, arrogance, prejudice, jealousy etc. instead of virtues (33 of which are defined in the referred book on Personality Development).
